...tistics Show Tokyo Had 475 Robberies Compared To New York's 74,000.

By MIKE HOLMES

TOKYO. — A lone girl, prettier than most, turns off a neon-lit street into a dark and narrow alley. The click of her footsteps fades into the night until all that is heard is the drip, drip, drip of a leaking tap.

The girl is one of Tokyo's tens of thousands of bar hostesses and she ventures down that lonely alley five times a week, more than 200 times a year.

The alley cuts the walk from the railway station to her two-room apartment by 300 metres. She uses it without fear, because Tokyo is probably the least violent of the world's major cities.

Robbery is rarer than blue-eyed blondes in this metropolis of 11,500,000. It is difficult to credit that in 1970 only 475 cases of robbery were reported in Tokyo. By contrast, New York had more than 74,000 — even though it has 3½ million fewer inhabitants.

So the bar hostess need not worry about a prowler lurking in the alley to snatch her yen-stuffed handbag.

New York also had five times as many murders as Tokyo, four times as many rapes and twice as many assaults. Only three of Tokyo's murders were committed with guns — a reward for strict control on private ownership of firearms.

Japanese police boast a high rate of arrests, which should be discouraging to anyone bent on a crooked career. But I believe there are more important reasons why violence is a stranger to most Japanese: reasons of environment and temperament.

First, while New York is an ethnic maelstrom, Tokyo is a vast plain of homogeneity and harmony. For every one of the mere 40,000 foreigners in the city there are 287 locals.

Secondly, Japan has few desperately poor or deprived persons.

Thirdly, although this is a free society it is also a highly-organized one. The authorities, by means of compulsory registration, keep a close track of every citizen's movements. And every foreigner, too. This is a great help in tracing anyone wanted for questioning by the police.

A fourth reason for Tokyo's low level of violence is much less flattering and only partly facetious. How can a man go out and bludgeon his neighbor when

Short Police Hopeful Gives Up Ambition

DETROIT. — Sanshiro Miyazaki, 30, decided Sept. 26 he can't stretch himself to 5 ft. 7 and meet the minimum height requirement to fulfill his lifelong ambition to be a policeman.

He slept in traction, was knocked on the head by his understanding wife with a board to raise a bump (there-by gaining national press and an appearance on Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show) and got up to 5 ft. 6 ¾.

Meanwhile, the Michigan Civil Rights Commission is ascertaining whether the height and weight standards of the department discriminates against persons of Japanese ancestry and other minorities of short stature. (The PC is suggesting the average height of Japanese Americans may be ascertained by the Army if it still has the records of the 442nd RCT.)

Japanese Girl Raped At Gunpoint By Italian

PALERMO, Sicily. — A 26-year-old Japanese girl tourist has reported that an Italian forced her at gunpoint to have sexual intercourse with him after picking her up at Palermo Airport and luring her to his flat, police said here recently."

Police subsequently arrested a 25-year-old Roman, Pasqualino Faria, and charged him with rape, kidnaping and illegal possession of firearms.

Kazuko Ariga, from Hitachi, told police she arrived three days ago from England at Punta Raisi Airport together with her valet, Ferruccio Fiocchi, 52, Italian-born but resident in London.

A young Italian offered to take them by car to a Palermo hotel but on finding that all the ones he tried were full, suggested they stay the night at his flat, she said.

Then he made her have intercourse with him after threatening her and the valet with a pistol.

The next morning he drove the two to Agrigento, about 125 kilometers (80 miles) south of here, and released them, she said.

Sgt Yokoi Will Take Wife On Guam Honeymoon

NAGOYA. — Shoichi Yokoi, a die-hard Japanese soldier who hid in the jungles of Guam for 28 years rather than surrender, said recently he has completed 70 per cent of the arrangements for his marriage to a 44-year old spinster.

Yokoi, 57, and Mihoko Hatashin announced their marriage plans recently, and the former World War II army sergeant said he would like to take his bride to Guam for their honeymoon and show her his subterranean jungle hideout.

No date has been set for the wedding but Yokoi told a newsman he expects to finalize all arrangements in a few days.

Yokoi and Miss Hatashin were introduced last August by a company executive who went to primary school with the former soldier. They announced their engagement after three meetings.

"I think we have much in common," Yokoi said, referring to Miss Hatashin.

Miss Hatashin said she agreed to marry Yokoi because he "is so sincere and earnest."

Yokoi was captured by two Guamanians near his hideout in January. He said he knew of Japan's defeat in World War II but he refused to give himself up because he was taught it would be better to die than surrender.

Vancouver-born S.I. Hayakawa Says "Mission Accomplished" Will Retire

SAN FRANCISCO. — Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, who became president of California State University at San Francisco when the campus was torn by rioting, pronounced his mission "accomplished" recently and gave notice of his resignation.

The Vancouver-born Hayakawa, who was credited with restoring peace to the 18,000-student campus scourged by bombings and student riots in late 1968 and early 1969, told a news conference he expected to be named the university's president emeritus.

He said his target date for leaving the president's post was June 1973, but that he would remain longer if trustees of the 19-campus university system had not chosen a successor.

Saying he was resigning "with a mixture of regret and relief," Mr. Hayakawa, 66, said he wanted to continue serving the university "in whatever capacity I can in community, legislative, public relations and fund-raising activities."

Mr. Hayakawa, once mentioned as a Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, said he expected "a few job offers" but said he had no political plans "whatever."

"Now I feel that things are in order — mission accomplished — I feel I can relax and go back to things that are more close to my own orientations." he said. "I want to sit and think, pound a typewriter, read books — I want to return to the reflective life and write specifically on the subjects of higher education."

The 5-foot-6 professor, known throughout the academic world for his work in semantics, rose to national fame for the part he played in ending campus violence that plagued the campus for four months in 1968-69.

Mr. Hayakawa was elevated from professor to acting president after he made a speech to the faculty in the midst of a crisis centering on demands by black radicals. He heaped scorn on colleagues he felt were appeasers and demanded that police be called to the campus if necessary, because "one way or another education must go on."

On his first day as president, Mr. Hayakawa, wearing a Scots Tam O'Shanter by which he was later identified as a public figure, marched up to a crowd of noisily demonstrating students and ripped out the wires of their loudspeaker system.

The instant silence became a symbolic turning point in the troubles at the school, where there had previously been three college presidents in quick succession and continuous rioting.

Mr. Hayakawa told demonstrators who argued with him after he cut off their loudspeaker: "Sue me." He shoved the agitators off their platform. Throughout the United States, authorities soon began clamping down on unruly campuses.

Mr. Hayakawa, a self-described liberal, favored quick use of police, and hundreds of arrests were made during the compus disorders that ended only when Christmas recess was called a week early.

Although sporadic incidents continued and the school was hit by a strike by the American Federation of Teachers in January, 1969, the worst of the turmoil was over within a few months.

He was named president of San Francisco State, as it was then called, seven weeks later.

Mr. Hayakawa received his bachelor's degree from the University of Manitoba in 1927, his master's degree from McGill University in 1928 and his doctorate at the University of Wisconsin in 1929, where he met his wife.

Canadians To Join Sokagakkai Visit To "Mecca"

TOKYO. — More than 3000 foreign followers of the Japanese neo-Buddhist organization Sokagakkai will visit Japan early this month to participate in a series of celebration marking the completion of a main temple building.

The four-year "Sho-Hondo" (grand main temple) construction project will be completed at the Daiseki-ji head temple in Fujinomiya in Shizuoka prefecture.

To symbolize a prayer for world peace, stones collected from 135 countries were used in its foundation, said Kimio Yokoyama, the architect who designed the temple.

Sokagakkai, instituted in 1931 as the Nichiren Shoshu sect of Buddhism, has been rapidly growing under its current president Daisaku Ikeda. It commands 7,570,000 households in Japan and has some 300,000 followers in 80 countries.

Ceremonies are scheduled for a week from Oct. 11 at the temple. More than 3000 followers from abroad, representing 50 nations, will participate.

The countries include Canada, United States, Mexico, France, Italy, West Germany, Britain, Brazil, Argentina, Hong Kong, Malaysia, South Korea and Singapore.

Yank Collector Pays $18,000. For Japan Print

NEW YORK. — An American collector has paid $18,000 for an 18th century Japanese print of lovers standing in the falling snow, a record for a Japanese print, Sotheby Parke-Bernet announced.

The work was by the artist Haranobu. The previous high price, $10,752, was for a portrait by the artist Sharaku.

The print was part of the collection of Hans Popper of San Francisco, which is being sold by Popper's heirs. The sale took place recently.

Gary Tanaka Leads Yamada Scoring In Japanese Hockey League Opener

TORONTO. — Last Sunday the Canadian Japanese Hockey League got off to its usual slam-bang start in its season opening games at George Bell Arena.

In the first match Yamada Studio upended Japan Camera by a 3 to 1 score. It was Gary Tanaka who led the charge for the winners by counting twice. On each occasion he was ably assisted by his linemate Richard Nabeta. Ray Sugimori potted the third goal.

The only reply the cameramen could muster was by Ken Hamade. Andy Hayashi and Norman Ichiyen drew assists.

It was a close fought game throughout, with the cameramen never really out of contention.

Urabe Insurance made the best of their season opener by taking Turf Cleaners 4 to 3. This game featured some loose denfensive work by both teams although Turf must take the majority of the blame. On numerous occasions Turf was guilty of failing to adequately cover rebounds or clear the front of their net of potential scorers.

The scoring for Urabe was evenly distributed. Hugh Goryo, Jeff Kuwasaki, Brian Yasui and Alan Tanaka were all on target.

The individual scoring star for Turf was Gary Nasu who displayed mid-season form by firing in two and assisting on the third by Randy Maeda.

All in all by the looks of the season openers it would seem that we can all look forward to an exciting season of close competition.

Future Games: October 22 1:00 Yamada Studio vs. Turf Cleaners Urabe Insurance vs. Japan Camera.

Jesse At Mother's Bedside

HONOLULU. — Hawaiian sumo wrestler Takamiyama (Jesse Kuhaulua) was in Maui recently to be at the bedside of his mother, who is in satisfactory condition following amputation of her right leg.

Jesse arrived in Honolulu from Tokyo Sept. 24 and immediately boarded a flight for Maui where he rushed to the bedside of his widowed mother, Mrs. Lillion Kuhaulua, 49. Jesse's mother is diabetic and surgery was necessary because her leg had become gangrenous.

The sumo champion left Tokyo for Hawaii shortly after he lost his last bout of the 15th day of the Autumn Grand Sumo Tournament. Jesse, promoted to Sekiwake or junior champion after the last tournament which he won in July, will be demoted back to Maegashira in the next tournament scheduled for November.

He concluded the September tourney with a disappointing 5-10 record. There has been speculation that concern over his mother's condition may have played a major part in his poor showing in the fall tournament.

沖縄の民俗藝能・音楽について次に述べてみたい。
沖縄は實に豊かな独自の歌舞・音楽を持つている。音楽はテンポの早い音楽と、貴族藝術として磨かれた古典音楽に大別されるが、共に約六百年程前中国より伝わつた絃楽器・蛇皮線のメロディーに合わせて歌われ踊られる。この蛇皮線が後年本土に渡つて三味線となつていることはよく知られている。

戦後米国は沖縄音楽の深さと音楽的価値を認め、古典藝能を探訪し、また多くの秀れた音楽家が來島して沖縄音楽を研究した。その一人、ニューヨーク大学音楽主任ジャン・ラルヤン教授は占領軍人として在留中に悠長な沖縄音楽に接し、その優美さに驚いて研究を始め、その論文でハーバード大学から博士号を受けている。同教授の説によれば沖縄音楽は中国や日本々土の民族音楽より、はるかに洗錬されたものであるという。

数年前アメリカのテレビ司会者エド・サリバン氏が來日して四つの日本音楽と舞踊を撮影、全米・全加に放送したが、その三つまでが沖縄の音楽であつたのは興味深い。

この様な優れた民俗藝能文化が軽視され東京中心主義が明治 大正・昭和と続いて來たことは残念である。日本人は自分の知らない事や異つた事に接すると、それを研究しようとはせずに軽視する傾向がある。アメリカのオキナワ音楽研究熱が日本の一般大衆を驚かし最近本土のオキナワ音楽が盛んになり、オキナワの音楽家が大いに活動しているという事である。

明治以来の日本の国策はこの平和な琉球王国時代の風俗を捨てさせ、忠君愛国主義を強調させることであつた。大正二年着任した沖縄県知事高橋琢也は着任早々県下の中等学校を歴訪し従来の沖縄文化・音楽を捨てるよう勧めている。また本土からの特高課長が沖縄の芸能人を集め、琉球の古典劇である組踊りの標準語化を示唆して彼等を困らせたことがあつた。

現在のオキナワ文化は前回も述べた通り本土の文化と一見異つているが、その基底に於ては一つであり、本土が封建領国を続けた時代にオキナワでは海外貿易により外国文化を取り入れて消化したと云える。

このオキナワ県民の本土との一体観は祖国復帰運動にあらわれている。復帰運動のリーダーの一人、仲吉良光氏はアメリカのオキナワ占領を"一つの身体が左右に引き裂かれて"いると表現し、米軍政府がある時は武力による脅し、又ある時は懐柔策をとつて勧めたが県民の復帰運動は止めることが出来なかつた。オキナワの人々はもう戦争にはあきあきしている。平和の日本に帰りたいのが理想であるが、屋良知事が言つているように前途の苦難は覚悟の上で復帰したと云える。（完）

柔肌峠（十七）

山岡荘八

弥兵衛は体をほうり出して表へ走った。と、その時には神田橋の方へ糸ひくように駆けてゆく人影が二つ。

うしろのはたしかにここへ張り込んでいた、ひどく人相のわるい浪人らしかつたが、逃げてゆく方は、との妻恋にはだしで、肩から古むしろをかけている。

弥兵衛は一瞬ドキリとしたが、その想像はあたつていた。あの日大川の大饗宴に助けられ、大根河岸へ野菜と一緒にあがつた浅間源之丞であつた。

源之丞ははじめ、これほど事件を複雑には考えていなかつた。

たかが無頼者（ならずもの）の小谷権兵衛の、いやがらせ位に考えていたのだが、大根河岸から三河町のわが家にまわり、更にお津万の実家をたずねてびつくりした。

どこにもきびしく見張りが立つていて近寄れない。ようやくかつぎ売りの魚屋から、あれつきりお津万も子供も行衛不明で、家へは鍵がかかつたままと聞かされただけであつた。

そうなると、これはただの嫌がらせではなくて金座めんみつに計畫したことに違いなかつた。

いつたい主謀者は黒田藩邸の小谷権兵衛なのか、それとも権兵衛を使つて何者かがお津万を誘拐させたのか、その辺のことが皆目わからなかつた。

目的ははつきりしている源之丞を殺して、お津万を奪う事と、

しかし子供の母になつた女に、なんでそのように執着するのか？

いつそひと思いに権兵衛の屋敷へ斬り込み、権兵衛を……とらえて真実をと、思つても、向うから見かいけられているだけで駿河台の屋敷へ近づくことなど、思いも寄らなかつた。

日中國交の結果 カン國に戒嚴令

國会解散、戦車隊が出動警戒

【ソール十七日】韓国の朴大統領は特別声明を発表、憲法の一部停止と国会解散を行なった。この声明直後ソール市内には戦車、装甲車が出動した。武装車は大統領公邸と国会議事堂建物前に配置され、市内要地には剣付き銃の軍隊が警戒朴大統領の『戒厳令』声明の録音がラジオとテレビでくり返えし放送された。

しかし、ソール市の夜の生活には反映が示されず、自動車が市街を埋ずめ、商店やレストランは平常通りの営業ぶり。総体的な影響は翌日に現われ、全大学、高校が閉止され、雑誌、発行物および放送は厳重な検閲下におかれた。

朴大統領は一九六一年に軍部クーデターで権力をおさめ 昨年第三期の大統領に選ばれたが、北朝鮮と韓国側における和解工作が進められていることから、朝鮮における権力均衡に変更がもたらされることを恐れ『戒厳令を出したものといわれている。

田中首相は名指しではいないが 日本と中国の国交正常化に伴う韓国の立場が微妙な位置によることを次のように指摘した。

朝鮮半島をめぐる勢力国家間の勢力均衡に大きな変更が示されつゝある。この状態下に弱少第三国が強力国家間の緊張緩和のため犠牲にされることから守らねばならない。この変更によって安全保障組織に悪影響を及ぼすことになろう。誰一人として戦争再開が絶対起らないことを保証する者はない。

なお朴大統領は予定の訪日（十一月十三日から十八日まで）についてどうするかを後日発表することになろうと語った。別の情報では訪日を取り止めに決めたと伝えている。

まず堅い自由黨支持 新民主黨人氣伸びる

○…投票日までに十日、ツルドー首相の自由黨に對する人氣支持は堅いと、このほどトロント・スター紙が行ったアンケートで判明している。自由黨支持率は三一％、保守黨は二一％で新民主黨は一三％、社信黨その他はわずか四％。

○…しかし、カナダ世論調査によると、十月における新民主黨の人氣は他政黨に比べてぐんぐんと上昇、二一％となっている。これは八月の各黨人氣調べのさい、わずか一五％だったのにくらべると大きなジャンプである。自由黨の人氣の伸びは二％、保守黨は一％減っている。

○…スター紙の調査によると有権者の約二五％はどの政党へ投票するかをいまだに決めておらず、このうち六％は全然投票する意思はないという組である。未決定の大部分はケベック州民であることも明らかにされている。

和平説が再燃

【サイゴン】キッシンジャー米大統領補佐官はベトナム戦和平交渉に關して今週當地を四日間 チュウ大統領と會談した。同補佐官はパリから歸り、席の溫まらないうち、サイゴンへ飛來したことで、和平交渉の妥結が近いとみる向きがある。

老年恩給二百弗案出す
新政府がビーシー州議會に

【ビクトリア】新民主党政府は州内老年ペンショナーで必要とする者に對し月最大二百ドルにペンションを増額する法案を今週開会した議會に提出することを約した。

ビーシー州ではオタワからの老年恩給と生活補助金および州政府からの援助金で月百九十一弗をうけているペンショナーが現在わずか千二百五十人しかない。新計畫によると、月二百ドルをうけ得るペンショナーを十一万人にふやすことになる。全ペンショナーの約半數にあたる。

また州最低賃金も一ドル五〇セントから二ドル五〇セント（十八カ月間に漸次）にする法案も上程し、タバコおよび酒類の新聞廣告の掲載禁止法は即時撤廢することも新政府は予定している。

【東京時事】外貨減らしのため國際收支對策は、今週開かれた大蔵、通産、農林、経企の各省官房長会議で二十日の國對策關係閣僚会議までに、経企庁が各省間の調整を進めながら對策案をまとめることになった。各省の情報を総合すると[illegible]、各省の意見が對立したまま國際会議に持ち込まれる可能性が強いとみられている。

とくに輸入飼料の目玉とされている牛肉の一律二〇％引き下げについて農林省が國内畜産物への影響を重視して強硬に反對しており輸入わくの一律三〇％拡大も農林省が難色、落花生を例外品目として欲しいと要求するなど 全品目一律拡大方針をつらぬくことはきわめて困難な情勢である。

チリーで暴動續く
革命寸前の社會状態と警告

【チリ、サンチアゴ】チリのアランデ大統領（左翼派）はここ数日間にわたって續けられている國内勞組の反對デモと暴動について今週チリーは革命寸前の状態だと警告、國庫には一ドルも残っておらず、外貨不足は年々二億弗である」國情を訴えて、勞組ストに同情して商店を閉止した實業家に開店營業するよう強くアピールした。

首都サンチアゴはさながら市街戦状態で 軍人がデモ隊を追っ払いに躍起となっている。これに市警が協力、水パイプを使って群衆退散に懸命。反對黨はこれを議會に『民間人によるクーデターが起りつつある』と宣傳している。

【トロント】ト市最大の現金強奪が十八日午後に起り、五人組は二十六万一千九百弗の現金を持ち逃げした。四人組はユニオン駅にあるインピリアル・バンクにピストルを使って押し入り、金庫から札束をさらって、待ち構えたドライバーの車でベイ街に逃走したが、このホールドアップは職人の技術が定規のようであったといわれ、プロ集團でそのやり方はモントリオール型だと警察ではいっている。銀行員に被害者が加えられなかった。

カナダの小麦輸入
日本で打診中

【東京】日本農林省は今週世界の小麦生産國の不作にともなう小麦値上りに關連するため、カナダとの間に小麦輸入協定を結ぶことにつき打診を行っていると發表した。小麦輸入は日本政府の統制下にあり、年々八万三千余ブッシェルを外國から買い求めている。

日本側としては一九七三年一月までの小麦需要量を確保しているが、國際的な小麦不作による價格の變動に對し、カナダからの供給をたしかめるため、協定を結ぶことを希望している。

移民官にいわせると、これらの觀光客は一時旅行という名目でカナダに入り、モントリオールで姿をくらます、不法入國して移住申請する者ばかりとにらみ、旅券審査を行うこと 拒否したわけで、『なにしろ、移住目的の外人旅行が一日平均一千人もトロント空港を通過するが、その大部分はもぐり込み移民が目的』といっている。南米からの旅行者はその際 旅券をもどされ、モ市で再吟味されることになった。

Pre-cooked Instant Foods Now In Big Japan Boom

TOKYO. — Precooked, quick-frozen foods have instantly caught on with Japanese housewives who have become tired of the long hours spent over a hot stove every day.

The production of frozen foodstuffs in Japan increased by about 40 per cent in 1971 to a value of 43,000 million yen, seven times the 1965 level. And about a half of them are precooked. The figure is expected to reach 50,000 million yen this year.

Hamburger steaks, pork cutlets, croquettes, fried oysters, fried prawns, noodles, cakes ... some 250 varieties of precooked, quick-frozen, foodstuffs are available in retail stores throught Japan.

All one has to do is to heat them before serving.

More than 80 per cent of the housewives interviewed in a survey conducted by the Japan Association of Frozen Foodstuffs Industry said they bought precooked, quick-frozen foodstuffs because they were easy to serve. About half of them said that such foodstuffs vere relatively fresh.

A spokesman for a Tokyo producer said that the company's sales target for frozen foodstuffs for the Kanto region this year had more than doubled from 700 million yen 800 million yen to 2,000 million yen, and sales were continuing to expand.

The company is now building additional plants to manufacture precooked, quick-frozen foodstuffs.

This boom has pushed up the sales of refrigerators equipped with deep freezers, an official of the industry's association said.

He also pointed out the change in people's attitude toward life — more and more stress being given to leisure rather than to work.

The industry expects that the sales of precooked, quick-frozen foodstuffs will double in about five years.

To distract more housewives from conventional cooking in a kitchen, the makers plan to put genuine TV dinners into the market.

Commenting on fears that the taste of food might become uniform throughout the nation with the spread of TV dinners, Kozo Kitahara, chief of the secretariat of the industry's association said, "It will take many years to reach such a situation. At present, those eating precooked, quick-frozen foodstuffs represent only a fraction of the population."

"The Japanese" Gives Insight Into The Peope

By BILL HOSOKAWA

Sansei (and Nisei, too) who are seeking a single volume that will give them an insight into the Japanese — their character, customs and hangups — may find what they are looking for in the book titled, "The Japanese," published a few weeks ago by William Morrow & Co. The author is Jack Seward, a Texan who went to Japan after the surrender as a military intelligence officer. He has lived in Japan most of the time since then and is married to a Japanese woman.

Seward looks at, analyzes, dissects and reports on the Japanese from an American viewpoint. Having lived among them, speaking their language, he has become very much aware of their warts and blemishes as well as their charm. Many Japanese will not like what he has written. They will not quarrel with the accuracy of his observations, but only with the emphasis he has put on them. Herewith, some of those observations:

On the Japanese attitude toward themselves: "They believe that as a race they are emotional (as opposed to logical), diligent, polite, kind conformist, loyal, patient, humane, just and responsive to a sense of obligation toward others. A majority of them believe that they are superior to all other races, with the possible exception of the Germans."

On the Japanese sense of duty: "Perhaps the most important single key to an understanding of the national character and the customary attitudes of the Japanese can be found in their set of social values identified individually by the names on kindness, obligation), giri (duty, justice) ninjo (humanity), seii (sincerity) makoto (sincerity), kao (face), sekinin (responsibility), gimu (duty), and nimmu (mission, assigned task). These are the ligatures that hold the framework of Japanese society together, each making active demands on its members.... Unfortunately the vectors cross and tangle only too often, providing the plots for much of Japan's literature. Does duty to liege lord outweigh obligation to one's teacher? Must human feelings be cast aside in favor of responsibility to one's parents. Must the young man obey his father and abandon the girl he loves? Should the young mother tell her husband that the baby she has just borne is not his if, by so doing, she may cause him to resign from his teaching job in shame? These and similar threads of indecision are... what represents the evaluations and decisions which typify actual social concourse in present-day Japan."

On male dominance: "With sexual satisfaction so comparatively easy to achieve in Japan, the Japanese man does not have to devote so much of his time to its pursuit, leaving him with more time and energy to devote to more profitable, if less pleasant pastimes."

On the Japanese fascination for samurai movies in which the hero with fantastic skill routs scores of baddies: "As I read it, the many enemy swordsmen stand for Japanese society, conformity, the jellyfishlike group that engulfs and stifles the individual... while the lone sword-fighting protagonist is individuality, self-reliance, independence, self-fulfillment, innovation, the charismatic trailblazer... The single sword-fighter in these chambara is also acting out another fantasy which the Japanese long but seldom attain -- individually inspired and individually conducted courage."

On violence: "Willingness to kill and then to die for hopeless causes has filtered down through the years to us today in the forms of the assassination mentality of the Japanese and the minority inspired violence of their politics... In Japan the 'tyranny of the majority can easily give rise to the violence of the minority when that minority believes that decent consideration is not being accorded its situation."

On individualism: The Japanese "is taught that it is better to be harmonious than to be right according to his own private convictions... In the United States we pay homage to the man who stands alone against all comers in his continuing struggle for justice or vindication or personal liberty, but such a man would not appeal to the Japanese. They would have preferred that he subordinate his own inner urges to the ambitions of the group."

If Jack Seward's observations give you an uneasy feeling of looking at yourself in a cloudy mirror, hold up your hand.

US Nisei WWII Pacific Soldiers Work To Be Told

SAN FRANCISCO — The almost totally unpublicized work of Japanese Americans engaged in U.S. intelligence work in the Pacific theatre during World War II will be told in a book to be written by Roger Daniels, it was disclosed here recently after a meeting between the writer-educator and former Nisei members of the Military Intelligence Service (MIS).

The book will be published under auspices of the Northern California Military Intelligence Association.

Dr. Daniels, a member of the history department at the New York State University at Fredonia, hopes to have the book completed "within a couple of years" for publication by the University of Illinois Press. He hopes to obtain research funds from some foundation. Prof. Daniels is the author of a number of books, a recent one of which is "Concentration Camps USA: Japanese Americans and World War II." It was while he was teaching at the University of Wyoming that he engaged in research on the evacuees at the Heart Mountain relocation center near Cody, Wyo., having earlier become interested in the Nisei experience.

On the subject of detention camps, it is Dr. Daniels' feeling that such a massive evacuation as the wartime removel of Japanese Americans would not be likely to be repeated on a racial basis, but it might be effected on an ideological basis in the event of a national emergency.

Crime . . .

he's bent over his abacus trying to diddle the tax agency? Or "fixing" his expense account? Or offering a "donation" to a politician in anticipation of future favors? For this land of little violence is also the land of the grand deception.

In a world full of financial fiddling few would froth at the mouth over $30. But Japan seems to have more than its share of big-time wanglers. Take the incredible case of the bogus doctors and dentists, for example. In January and February alone, police arrested 109 unqualified but practising "doctors" and "dentists." One fellow had read the X-rays of 35,000 factory workers since 1960. Another, a noted "sex consultant," was getting more than $13,000 (U.S.) a year merely by writing a weekly column in a women's magazine. In Kobe a group of criminals set up their own "referral office" for quacks.

It was a tale of horror that spurred the government to send 3,000 health officials throughout the country to check the qualifications of practitioners. It is also reappraising the medical employment system and an educational structure that has left Japan chronically short of doctors (115 per 100,000 population) and dentists (33 per 100,000).

Tax evasion on a massive scale is another example of Japan's crime by deceit. Sofu Teshigawara, doyen of one of the country's flourishing flower arrangement schools, declared only 370 million yen of his 870 million yen (roughly $2.8 million) income in the three years to 1968. Finally he paid tax and penalty tax totalling nearly $1.6 million.

A leading patent attorney is being charged with evading $2.06 million in taxes over the past three years. A money broker also sidestepped more than $1.3 million in taxes.

The most embarrassing case, though, concerns 50-year-old Tomonori Iwakura, charged with selling mortgaged ski lifts worth $100,000 for $430,000. Why embarrassing? Because Iwakura is the great-grandson of the Meiji era pioneer whose features grace Japan's 500-yen banknote.
